

"So What" - FRAULLEIN SCHNEIDER

REFRAIN :

(sung)

For the sun will rise and the moon will set And you learn how to set-tle for what you get. It will all go on if we're here or not. So who cares? So What? So who cares?

VERSE

So what? When I was a girl, my sum-mers were spent by the sea. So what? And I had a maid do-ing all of the house-work, not me. So what? How I scrub up the floors and I wash down the walls and I emp - ty the cham - ber pot. If it

(sung)

(spoken)

end - ed that way, then it end - ed that way, and I shrug and I say: So what? = = = (sung) For the

→ SING REFRAIN ONE MORE TIME (1st 3 1/2 LINES)

NOTE: FRAULLEIN SCHNEIDER IS A MATURE, MIDDLE-AGED WOMAN WHO SINGS LOW. IT IS OK TO SPEAK-SING SOME LINES.